STORY

The year is 2156 and you are the last kiwi.
Transported into an alternate dimension by an evil professor you must survive the terrors of the void or risk your species extinction.
In order to get back to your dimension you must repair the capsule you arrived in. However the evil professor is determined to make sure you do not return and is sending his fiercest creations to finish you off. Defend your capsule and gather resources from the monsters you defeat to build structures and weapons. Find a way to stop the monster attacks in order to escape.
It is time. Fight or flight, and we all know kiwi's can't fly.
Good Luck.
